AND WHEREAS, Under Section 10 of the Act, Government within three weeks from the date of detention of a person under the order shall place the case before the Advisory Board on Preventive Detentions, constituted under Section 9 of the said Act, comprising of Justice Sri T.L.N. Reddy (Retired), Chairman and two other Members and the Advisory Board shall submit its report to Govt., within seven weeks from the date of detention under Section 11(1) of the said Act. The above said case was placed before the Advisory Board for its consideration and to submit its report to Government, under Section 11 (1) of the said Act, vide reference 3rd read above. The case was reviewed by the Advisory Board on 04.08.2015 and after having heard the detenu and perused the representation of the detenu and the Investigating Officers and also upon perusing the grounds of detention and the connected records, has reported that, in its opinion, "there is sufficient cause for the detention of the detenu, Sri Turra Venkata subbaiah, S/o Venkataiah, @ Nadipayana @ Nadipaiah, aged 37 years, R/o Bhakarapet Village, Sidhout Mandal, YSR District, Kadapa";

4. AND WHEREAS, the Government on careful examination of the entire record, it is observed that the detenu, Sri Turra Venkata subbaiah, S/o Venkataiah, @ Nadipayana @ Nadipaiah, aged 37 years, R/o Bhakarapet Village, Sidhout Mandal, YSR District, Kadapa, was involved in as many as in eleven (11) cases. The above cases were registered against him, under the provisions of Section 20(1) C (ii) (iii) (iv) & (X) & 27 of A.P. Forest Act, 1967 and also under section 29 of Wild Life Protection Act, 1972 and 55(2) of Biological Diversity Act, 2002 and Sec 307, 353,378 & 379 IPC. The details shows that he is a habitual offender and a master mind behind the said offences. All his activates are dangerous to rare and pristine forest wealth and his activities are habitual in nature, which are prejudicial to the maintenance of public order and it is necessary to prevent him from further indulging in illicit felling of red sanders trees in Reserved Forest, dressing tem in to logs, theft and illegal transportation to other states to gain illegal money, theft, smuggling of red sender wood logs, assault and attempt to murder of the officials or abetment of the above offences. (PTO) are dangerous to forest wealth and prejudicial to maintenance of public order apart from disturbing the peace, tranquility, social harmony / order in the society and he became a source of potential danger to the public. The said offences are punishable under Forest Act, 1967 and the rules made there under, as well as Chapter XVI or XVII or XXII of IPC. As such the activities of the individual falls under and within the meaning of 'Goonda' as defined under Section 2(g) of Act 1 of 1986. All the incidents mentioned in the grounds of detention clearly substantiate as to how the acts of the detenu are prejudicial to the maintenance of public order. In catena of decisions, the Hon'ble Courts held that any acts of attempt or illegal cutting of the red sander trees and smuggling the timber, would certainly have its impact on the public order. The detaining authority having taken into account and consideration of indulgence of the detenu in the above said activities repeatedly at regular intervals and having satisfied that the penal laws have failed to curb his illegal activities, has passed the detention order against the detenu by invoking the provisions under the Act 1 of 1986, in order to prevent him from indulging further in such activities, which are prejudicial to maintenance of public order and dangerous to forest wealth. The Advisory Board after review of the case, has opined that there is sufficient cause for the detention of the Detenu. As such, the detenu deserves the maximum period of detention, as provided under Section 13 of the Act;

5. Now, therefore, after due consideration of the report of the Advisory Board and the material available on record, Government, in exercise of the powers conferred under Sub-Section (1) of Section 12 read with Section 13 of the said Act, hereby confirm the Order of Detention made by the Collector & District Magistrate, YSR District, Kadapa in the ref. 1st read above, as approved in the G.O. 2nd read above and direct that the detention of Sri Turra Venkata subbaiah, S/o Venkataiah, @ Nadipayana @ Nadipaiah, aged 37 years, R/o Bhakarapet Village, Sidhout Mandal, YSR District, Kadapa be continued for a period of 12 (Twelve) months from the date of his detention, i.e. 15.07.2015.
